UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

STAFF SERGEANT ALFRED J. SERVENTI

Staff Sergeant Alfred Serventi is a KC-135 Crew Chief at the 161st Air Refueling Wing, Goldwater Air National Guard Base, Phoenix, Arizona. Sergeant Serventi is responsible for providing safe and mission capable aircraft in support of our Unit, Wing, Community, State, and Nation.

Sergeant Serventi, a native of Tucson, Arizona, entered the Air Force after graduating from Pueblo Magnet High School in 2011. After attending technical training at Sheppard AFB, TX, he was assigned to the 906th Air Refueling Squadron at Scott AFB, IL from 2012-2015. During this assignment, he further improved the Active Duty-Air National Guard integrated system by working side-by-side with the 126th Air Refueling Wing, creating a total force associated environment. As a flight line aerospace maintenance journeyman, Sergeant Serventi deployed twice to include an integrated deployment with the 126th ARW Air National Guard.

Sergeant Serventi transitioned from Active Duty to the Air National Guard, joining the 161st Air Refueling Wing. Currently serving as a Traditional Guardsman, Sergeant Serventi continues to prove himself both on and off the flight line. After attending Airman Leadership School, Sergeant Serventi was awarded the John L. Levitow Award, the highest award that can be received at any enlisted professional military education course.

Sergeant Serventi has supported and deployed to several contingencies to include Operations ENDURING FREEDOM, NOBLE EAGLE, PACOM AEF STEADY STATE, and INHERENT RESOLVE.
